BATTERED BRITISH ARMIES FALL BACK TO EGYPTIAN BORDER

Decisive Stage Reached in the Battle for Sevastopol

Allied Hopes for A New Front Spiked By Fall of Tobruk

By CLYDE A. FARNSWORTH
Associated Press War Editor

With Tobruk and virtually all eastern Libya regained and with the British Eighth Army beaten, leaving thousands of its number in the Tobruk trap, the Axis African corps rolled eastward today against Egypt, imperiling the entire position of the United Nations in the Middle East.

An enemy column evidently feeling out the weakened British line along the Egyptian frontier clashed with British mobile units a few miles from the border, the British reported, and Rome boasted that Italian-German troops were marching against Egypt.

Trying to block further reinforcement of the already superior African corps under Marshal Rommel, the RAF lashed desperately at Rommel's forward concentration points, landing fields, and land and sea transport.

Torpedo planes hit two large enemy supply ships, firing one, and struck an escort vessel, in a convoy south of Cape Bon, Tunisia, on the Sicily-Libya sea route, the RAF reported.

British and Axis mobile columns already had clashed yesterday near Sidi Azeiz, 12 miles northwest of the Libyan-Egyptian border strongpoint, Fort Capuzzo.

The Axis' own heavy air forces leaped the British frontier positions to strike at defense communications along the Egyptian coast between Sidi Barrani and Fuka.

The white flag that fluttered out Sunday morning over Tobruk's shattered barricades as a final, mute concession that a superior Axis force had reconquered Libya marks a major turn in the strategems of war on two continents, if not in the whole world.

So extended and intertwined are causes and effects of this capitulation that military experts were hard-pressed to trace them all, but it was obvious that the Axis triumph was forcing a drastic reshaping, if not postponement or abandonment, of some plans of the United Nations.

Rome, first to claim the capture of Tobruk, with six British generals reported among the prisoners, proclaimed today:

"Occupation of Tobruk has been completed, and Axis troops are marching toward the Egyptian frontier."

The British forces which escaped the Axis sweep were digging in along the Egyptian frontier.

The Hitler command credited a German mosquito boat flotilla with complete destruction of a formation of small British coastal craft and freighter fleeing from Tobruk yesterday morning.

One patrol boat, six coastal craft and a 4,500-ton freighter were sunk and three other coastal craft captured 175 men aboard, the Berlin communiqué said.

Off the Dutch coast, the Germans said, three of Britain's mosquito boats—motor torpedo craft—were sunk in an engagement last night with German minesweepers and several other British vessels were badly damaged.

In the air war of Europe blow and counter-blow were struck by the British and Germans last night. The Germans bombing at Southampton in their heaviest raid of three weeks. RAF formations of 200 to 300 planes attacked the German naval base of Emden Saturday night.

Overhead, heard plainly although too high to be seen, a large force of RAF planes raced out over the channel in the direction of Dunkirk, presumably in a resumption of early daylight assaults upon the occupied French coast.

Long bursts of fire were heard out at sea late in the morning, but the haze which limited visibility to three miles prevented watchers along the channel cliffs from seeing what craft were in action.

Nazi air raiders, apparently relying to two successive RAF night assaults on Emden and other targets in northwest Germany, unloaded high explosives on Southampton last night in a sharp attack which caused some damage and casualties.

Important Dates in Desert Campaign Waged by Axis

By the Associated Press
The Axis armies in North Africa now have won back for the second time most of the territory which the British took from the Italians in the original desert campaign of 1940-41.

Twice, British armies have advanced across the Libyan desert to Bengasi and twice they have been driven back to the Egyptian frontier by Marshal Edwin Rommel's Africa corps.

These are the important dates: Dec. 8, 1940—British open offensive to drive out Italians who had penetrated Egypt 70 miles to Sidi Barrani.

Jan. 22, 1941—Tobruk captured by British; 25,000 Italians, including four generals, taken prisoners.

Feb. 6, 1941—British capture Bengasi, 340 miles west of Egyptian frontier.

April 4, 1941—Axis armies, sweeping back across Libya, re-take Bengasi.

April 12, 1941—Tobruk encircled and put under siege by Germans and Italians.

April 13, 1941—Axis armies again reach Egyptian frontier.

Dec. 6, 1941—British open new offensive in Libya.

Dec. 10, 1941—Besieged garrison of Tobruk relieved.

Dec. 25, 1941—British troops enter Bengasi for second time.

June 18, 1942—Axis troops again place Tobruk under siege.

June 21, 1942—Tobruk captured by Rommel's forces, with estimated 25,000 British prisoners. Axis armies in Egyptian frontier region.

ENEMY SUBS LURKING OFF WEST COAST

Submarine Shelling of Vancouver Island Brings War To Doorstep of Pacific Northwest

DAMAGE IS SLIGHT

By the Associated Press
Submarine shelling of lonely Vancouver island in Canada's British Columbia and gunfire upon the Oregon coast from an unidentified craft lurking offshore today brought war to the doorstep of the Pacific northwest.

The two attacks, at points separated by several hundred miles, came almost 24 hours apart. Official reports indicated that no suffered at either spot.

The first target was a Dominion government radio station at Estevan Point, on the western coast of Vancouver Island. The shelling there began at 10:35 p.m. (Pacific war time) Saturday and continued for a half-hour.

Then, at 11:30 o'clock last night, residents from Seaside on the ocean to Astoria on the Columbia river, at the northwest tip of Oregon, were awakened by the sound of gunfire and the whine of speeding missiles.

Eyewitnesses agreed with the army that the firing had been of no effect, but many felt certain they had heard more than nine shots.

No shells landed in Astoria, Seaside or any other community so far as could be determined from residents in the 30-mile area.

The army's announcement that they fell "north of Seaside" suggested they might have plowed uselessly into some part of the 16 mile of sandy wastelands between the ocean city and the Columbia river.

This theory was held by at least one resident of the coast. "The Japs picked a swell place for harmless target practice," he remarked.

SACRIFICES TO HELP FUTURE GENERATIONS

Asheville, N. C., June 22—(P)—President Roosevelt said today that within the days and months to come the peoples of this world would determine "by their work" their sacrifices, and through the instrumentality of their armed forces whether generations to come shall live and work as free men or slaves states."

He made the statement in a message to the national conference of governors, in session here.

Pittsburgh, June 22—(P)—Secretary of the Interior Harold Ickes addressing 25,000 cheering Slav-Americans last night, called for a post-war union of the free nations of the world to enforce a peace "that will make the next century the people's century."

His speech, adding support to suggestions that the United Nations take permanent form as a world policing agency, was given at an American Slav day rally in Kennywood Park.

Conferences Progressing Satisfactory

Expected That Two United Nations Leaders Will Issue Joint Statement

DETAILS UNAVAILABLE

Washington, June 22—(P)—Vital conferences between President Roosevelt and Prime Minister Winston Churchill were described today by the White House as progressing day and night in a "very satisfactory way" and it was disclosed that the two United Nations leaders expected to issue a joint statement later on.

They are conferring together and also with military, naval and air experts of both countries.

This much was revealed by Presidential Secretary Stephen Early. But he had nothing to add on specific details of the conferences, such as whether Mr. Roosevelt and the prime minister were focusing their attention primarily on the question of opening a second fighting front in Europe or on possible steps to stave off the Axis armies in North Africa.

The leaders, Early said, are holding numerous talks with other parties, but these are being kept "off the records".

The presidential secretary was informed that London newspapers

LINDBERGH PLANS TO RESIDE AT DETROIT

Detroit, June 22. (P)—A young state highway department laborer was held on a manslaughter charge today pending a coroner's inquest into the death of his two month-old daughter, killed during a "silly argument" between her parents.

Cornoror W. D. McClelland ordered Earl Styan, 20, held after the baby, Rosanna, died of a brain hemorrhage received in a fall from the arms of her 16-year-old mother.

Inspector Walter C. Monaghan said the youth told him: "I just lost my head and punched my wife over a silly argument. She dropped the baby. I would sooner be shot than have the baby dead. I loved that baby."

Pittsburgh, June 22—(P)—Charles A. Lindbergh has leased an estate in Bloomfield Hills, fashionable suburb, with plans to move there with his family this week, it was learned today from a rental agent.

BULLETIN

Washington, June 22—(P)—Abandonment of plans for nationwide gasoline rationing was predicted in some congressional quarters today as administration lieutenants reportedly gave the "go ahead" signal for a senatorial investigation of the entire situation. Leaders were said to have agreed to support proposal by Senator Maloney (D-Conn.) for a five-member special committee with a $5,000 appropriation for an immediate inquiry into shortages of gasoline and fuel oil, as well as the methods being employed to provide deliveries "for ordinary consumer use."

By the Associated Press

Twenty gasoline pumps stranded thousands of motorists along the Atlantic seaboard yesterday as summer's first week-end brought an increase in travel and exhausting demands on filling stations.

As harried dealers hung out "no gas" signs, drivers with empty tanks were forced to leave their cars parked at the roadside or have them towed to parking lots and garages.

Philadelphia was hardest hit with all of its 3,500 stations closed by midafternoon Sunday. Many motorists, including tourists, were stranded and some war workers were unable to get to their plants.

A. Reed Engle, president of the Associated Gasoline Dealers of Philadelphia, said the shortage was caused by doubling the value

Atlantic Sub
Toll Now 290

By the Associated Press

The United Nations today counted 25 merchant ships sunk in the Atlantic last week as the deadline neared on Hitler's order for even more intensified U-boat activity.

The navy added one to the total yesterday with the announcement that a small Norwegian vessel had been sent to the bottom of the Gulf of Mexico. This brought the announced toll in the Atlantic and adjacent waters to 290 since Pearl Harbor.

Hitter has ordered his submarine commanders to intensify the blockade to include snipping north of the West Indies and Ireland and east to Europe effective Friday.

In answer to this threat, Sen. Hill (D-Ala.) urged that giant cargo-carrying undersea craft be built and three more United States warcraft—two destroyers and a submarine—were launched at east coast shipyards.

FRESH WEDGE DRIVEN INTO SOVIET LINE

Defenders Drop Back From North and South Fortresses
Guarding Crimean Naval Base

NEAR CLIMACTIC STAGE

BY HENRY C. CASSIDY
Moscow, June 22—(P)—Sebastopol defenders dropped back to the north where the enemy massed a huge force of infantry, artillery and tanks, press accounts said.

A fresh Nazi wedge was forced in the fortifications to the north where the enemy massed a huge force of infantry, artillery and tanks, press accounts said.

In the south, where the Russians had dropped back to the central lines, a furious battle was reported under way for a hill dominating the sector.

Today marked the start of the second year of the war for the Soviet. As the battle for the last remaining bit of Crimea entered its climactic stage, German vessels appeared off Sebastopol dispatches from the beleaguered city said.

Two German torpedo cutters with speeds exceeding 45 miles an hour were reported detected by two small Russian rowboats on a mission close to the shore. The Russians claimed to have damaged one. The rowboats also were said to have found an enemy submarine on the surface. The vessels could have come from Rumania, Bulgaria or the occupied Russian port of Odessa.

Sporadic fighting was reported continuing on the Kharkov front, 400 miles north. The Germans were said to be attempting to re-store lines in a sector where they previously had lost four Ukrainian villages but the attack of two companies was reported repulsed.

The Germans besieging Sebastopol already were lodged in the outer defense lines.

The fate of the historic Crimean fortress appeared to be in the balance as the second year of the costly German campaign in Soviet Russia opened, but Russia's "peasant president," Michael Kalinin, found cause to assure his people that "the end of Hitlerism is inevitable."

ABOUT THOSE PAINS
AROUND the Heart

Angina pectoris is described by a well-known medical authority as "any pain within two feet of the heart, which is brought on by exercise or emotion and relieved by rest." Angina pectoris is caused from a diseased condition of the small arteries, which supply the muscles of the heart with blood.

The heart, being chiefly muscle, requires the same constant flow of blood through its tissues, and in much the same way as the other parts of the body. These small arteries branch many times, and, when healthy, supply plenty of blood to meet any demand of the heart.

When the walls of these arteries become weak through infection or hardening, any undue excitement, emotion or exercise may bring on a sudden contracted condition, that shuts off the blood supply, causing the excruciating pain called "Angina pectoris." There is no confusion in the mind of a person having Angina as to their having had a violent pain, and they must be relieved at once, or it becomes worse, and it is a very serious matter. Many a person has died with Angina pectoris because a doctor could not get to him in time to administer a speedy relaxing hypodermic.

If you are subject to pains around the heart, be thoroughly examined. If there is an Angina tendency, your physician may help you overcome the underlying cause, and advise you concerning a regime of living to make you more comfortable.

The following excerpt from a letter received by his former employer clearly expresses the opinion of one boy from Warren who has been in the service of our nation's forces for ten months and is now stationed in the Hawaiian Islands:

"Dear Sir:
The USO means an awful lot to us boys in the Hawaiian Islands. As we are in the War Zone and are on the alert 24 hours a day, we don't get much time off to find our own entertainment in town; but the USO is right there to help us out by bringing into our camps as well as to the Service Clubs all lines of entertainment. If it wasn't for the USO we would have very little amusement; thus we all appreciate and enjoy what the USO is doing for us all."

Signed—F. McM.

In commenting on this letter, W. Floyd Clinger, chairman of the Warren County War Chest, stated that many boys from the county, after hearing of the efforts now in progress to raise $20,000 for the USO, Navy Relief Society, and United China Relief, had written to the committee in charge of the campaign telling of the innumerable services being rendered by these organizations in providing for the welfare, comfort, and moral stamina of the men in active service.

"To have a boy in the service and to know that he is being provided with recreational facilities during his leisure hours as well as some of the things he was accustomed to at home, must bring joy and consolation to his parents," Mr. Clinger said; adding that a major portion of the campaign funds would go directly to the USO.

"Those of us at home are limited in what we can do personally for these men, but by contributing to the Warren County War Chest generously and immediately, we can, through this organization which goes directly into the camps, forts and outposts, and gives to these men something of home life, rest assured and convinced that their needs are being taken care of."

Contributions to the Warren County War Chest are being received at all the banks in the county as well as at numerous places of business, and directly by the Treasurer, Warren County War Chest, Warren, Pennsylvania.

FARM NEWS

Make Bins Ratproof — Many farmers are building bins or converting old buildings into granaries to store this year's wheat crop. Agricultural engineers at the Pennsylvania State College say that scrap sheet metal of no junk value, hard pressed wallboard, or half-inch mesh hardware cloth will make the bins ratproof.

Thinning Improves Fruit — Thinning at any time results in increased size of fruit and usually a reduction in total yield. Penn State fruit specialists say, however, that the earlier the work is done, the greater will be the increase in size and the less the reduction in yield. Early thinning also conserves the vitality of trees.

Make Quality Hay — Quality hay is often greatly reduced through over-exposure to the hot sun. Agronomists at the Pennsylvania State College recommend windrow curing after the hay is one-third dry in the swath. Leaves and finer parts will be saved from scattering by the slower method of drying.

Clean Drives or Walks — Clean drives or walks — Clean out grass, weeds, or other growing material from walks or driveways. Penn State ornamental horticulturists say that watering the previous evening will make the operation of pulling weeds with roots intact easier.

Keep Locker Full — The fuller a freezer-locker is kept, the lower the carrying charge per pound of food frozen, report food specialists from the Pennsylvania State College.

Stake Tall Flowers — Tall perennials and annuals should be staked to prevent breaking. Penn State floriculturists suggest use of discarded string of ribbon for tying the plants to stakes.

PREPARE FOR THE BLACKOUT

If you haven't started making plans for the "dusk-to-dawn test blackout to be held Thursday night better begin this evening, for there are many details to be worked out if you expect to participate 100 per cent in the important project.

It should be remembered that the State Defense Council has issued temporary rules governing types of illumination permissible for homes, factories and other establishments during the blackout, and reminds that violators are subject to fines ranging from $200 to $1,000 and imprisonment from ninety days to two years. That is another excellent reason for making certain that your plans will be sufficient to meet the requirements.

A complete half-hour blackout will require elimination of all but essential lighting. Dimmed or shaded lighting will be permitted during "partial" phase of the blackout, effective from 8:30 p. m., until five a. m., during the test.

Under ten classifications on lighting requirements and regulations, the Council says only war plants and utilities will be exempt from extinguishing or cloaking all lights, but says utilities must "discover what measures are necessary and be prepared to completely blackout on the next test." War plants are covered by Army and Navy regulations.

During total blackout, which will be heralded by sirens, individuals must immediately find shelter, and all lights in homes except those in a prepared "blackout" room must be extinguished. Stores, theatres, apartments, hotels and public buildings must switch off all lights except those which will not cause a glow on the outside.

Restrictions will be eased during the partial blackout, with persons on the street and in their homes directed to "proceed with normal habits insofar as practicable." The Council warns, however, that flashlights should be used only if equipped with red celophane or other red material covering. The flashes should never be pointed upward, or on a smooth surface capable of reflection, and should not be on for more than a few seconds at a time.

The Council advises residents to obscure lights to prevent outside reflections, rather than extinguish all lights, because the latter practice disrupts home life and lowers morale. A dim light visible through a shaded window will be permissible for the test this week only, it is added, although for best results it is not advisable.

Regulations during the half-hour blackout will be strictly enforced. During the remainder of the night, while partial blackout is in effect, local officials warn violators of failure to comply with regulations and will institute proceedings only against those who then refuse or fail to cooperate.

PARK ATTENDANCE DOWN

Gasoline and tire rationing along with other wartime factors are given as the reason for a big slump in attendance at Pennsylvania's state-owned parks, according to G. Albert Stewart, secretary of forests and waters. In some instance the figures are 70 per cent below that of last year.

"Concessionaires are not making expenses and at many parks are closing up shop," Mr. Stewart says in announcing the decline. He added that priorities have prevented many scheduled park improvements.

In addition, he says, "forestry has suffered through loss of larger percentage of trained personnel than the average state department, since foresters, all college graduates, are needed by the army."

Warren retailers deserve the support of the entire community in their efforts to make the "Retailers for Victory" bond sale drive a success. At the same time the retailers will be offering some excellent bargains at their rummage sale to be held in the vacant store room next to the Kirberger jewelry store Friday and Saturday of this week.

Make it a point to be in the vicinity of the Library Theatre tomorrow afternoon at three o'clock. You'll hear Blue Barron and his orchestra helping to spur the local sale of War Savings Bonds and Stamps.

Gas rationing or no gas rationing, you can bet your last dollar Americans are going some place in this war.

The Other Sphinx

WASHINGTON IN WARTIME

By JACK STINNETT

WASHINGTON—Over in the Department of Agriculture, sugar has lost its sweetness.

The reason: an avalanche of letters, the like of which the department has rarely seen before on any single subject. The general theme: Is it true (or why is it) that the government is paying (or urging) sugar beet and cane farmers to curtail production when the people have to submit to sugar rationing because of an alleged shortage?

Picked at random were letters from Michigan, Tennessee, Pennsylvania and California.

All play on the same note: "I have heard the government criticized as inconsistent in rationing sugar and at the same time, supporting an agricultural policy which forces farmers to plow under a portion of their sugar beet (or cane crops)." "Is it a fact that the U. S. government is paying growers NOT to raise sugar in this country, and if so why?"

WHAT about the annual report from a major western sugar firm, which contains the statement, "Sugar beet acreage allotments to farms in company territory in 1941 were restricted by the secretary of agriculture to a total of 12 per cent less than 1940?"

Here is the agriculture department's answer, as set forth by Joshua Bernhardt, chief of the sugar agency:

"The 1941 beet acreage restriction was required under the Sugar Act of 1937, which provides that federal payments to any domestic area may not be made on more sugar than is needed to fill that area's quota and establish normal reserves. At the time that the need for 1941 restriction was announced, that is late in 1940, there was a tremendous over-normal granary of sugar in this country and in Cuba... It was then that sugar beet growers who wished to receive federal payments were informed that it would be necessary for them to reduce their 1941 plantings. Incidentally, this was the only time since the federal sugar programs started in 1934 that the continental beet area, as a whole, had to restrict production. As a matter of fact, since these programs began, beet sugar production has increased 22 per cent, while that of the mainland sugar cane area, comprising Louisiana and Florida, has more than doubled.

"This year, of course, there are no federal restrictions whatsoever on sugar production in any domestic area.

"When Congress extended the life of the sugar act (until 1944) last December, it increased the rate of payments (one third) to domestic sugar producers so as to enable them to grow sugar under wartime conditions. Secretary Wickard has expressed the hope that these increased payments, coupled with higher sugar prices and the absence of production limitations would result in an expanded sugar output this year."

THERE you have the agriculture department's answer to one of the most widespread rumors that has been leveled in their direction since this war began.

If sugar growers anywhere this year are not getting their government payments, it's because they have failed to comply with other provisions of the sugar act.

Warren Anniversary Week was brought to a close over the weekend with three thrilling parachute jumps Sunday afternoon at the airport by Dick Cooper.

Two services held yesterday in the First Lutheran church marked its 90th anniversary and the 25th anniversary of the ordination of its pastor, Rev. C. A. Dennis.

The scene is a court room. The magistrate looks the defendant squarely in the eye and says, "What's the matter with you? Are you CRAZY?"

Off to one side a girl looks at the defendant coldly.

She whispers to her lawyer. The lawyer snaps out a snappy jibe.

What has the defendant done? Well, he's a musician. One night at a dance he became excited and tossed a burning cigarette down the front of the girl's dress. The girl was a singer. She suffered painful abdominal burns. They called the cops. That's why the judge demanded, "Are You CRAZY?"

They gave him a tongue-lashing, and a sentence, which was suspended—but only after the musician's wife arose and testified that he had never done anything crazy like that before.

He was a sober young man. I can tell you, when he walked out of the judge's chamber,

It should be remembered that the State Defense Council has issued temporary rules governing types of illumination permissible for homes, factories and other establishments during the blackout, and reminds that violators are subject to fines ranging from $200 to $1,000 and imprisonment from ninety days to two years. That is another excellent reason for making certain that your plans will be sufficient to meet the requirements.

A complete half-hour blackout will require elimination of all but essential lighting. Dimmed or shaded lighting will be permitted during "partial" phase of the blackout, effective from 8:30 p. m., until five a. m., during the test.

Under ten classifications on lighting requirements and regulations, the Council says only war plants and utilities will be exempt from extinguishing or cloaking all lights, but says utilities must "discover what measures are necessary and be prepared to completely blackout on the next test." War plants are covered by Army and Navy regulations.

During total blackout, which will be heralded by sirens, individuals must immediately find shelter, and all lights in homes except those in a prepared "blackout" room must be extinguished. Stores, theatres, apartments, hotels and public buildings must switch off all lights except those which will not cause a glow on the outside.

Restrictions will be eased during the partial blackout, with persons on the street and in their homes directed to "proceed with normal habits insofar as practicable." The Council warns, however, that flashlights should be used only if equipped with red celophane or other red material covering. The flashes should never be pointed upward, or on a smooth surface capable of reflection, and should not be on for more than a few seconds at a time.

The Council advises residents to obscure lights to prevent outside reflections, rather than extinguish all lights, because the latter practice disrupts home life and lowers morale. A dim light visible through a shaded window will be permissible for the test this week only, it is added, although for best results it is not advisable.

Regulations during the half-hour blackout will be strictly enforced. During the remainder of the night, while partial blackout is in effect, local officials warn violators of failure to comply with regulations and will institute proceedings only against those who then refuse or fail to cooperate.

PARK ATTENDANCE DOWN

Gasoline and tire rationing along with other wartime factors are given as the reason for a big slump in attendance at Pennsylvania's state-owned parks, according to G. Albert Stewart, secretary of forests and waters. In some instances the figures are 70 per cent below that of last year.

"Concessionaires are not making expenses and at many parks are closing up shop," Mr. Stewart says in announcing the decline. He added that priorities have prevented many scheduled park improvements.

In addition, he says, "forestry has suffered through loss of larger percentage of trained personnel than the average state department, since foresters, all college graduates, are needed by the army."

Warren retailers deserve the support of the entire community in their efforts to make the "Retailers for Victory" bond sale drive a success. At the same time the retailers will be offering some excellent bargains at their rummage sale to be held in the vacant store room next to the Kirberger jewelry store Friday and Saturday of this week.

Make it a point to be in the vicinity of the Library Theatre tomorrow afternoon at three o'clock. You'll hear Blue Barron and his orchestra helping to spur the local sale of War Savings Bonds and Stamps.

Gas rationing or no gas rationing, you can bet your last dollar Americans are going some place in this war.

She Keeps Tabs on Style

Rachel Blomquist In Junior Piano Recital

Rachel Blomquist, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Blomquist, of North Warren, and former pupil of Mrs. James S. White at the Conservatory, was presented in a delightful junior recital Friday evening in the concert hall.

Good student interpretation of Bach was shown in the opening numbers, two MacDowell arrangements, but it was in her second appearance, for the Mozart Concert with cadenzas by Reinecke, that she made the hit of the evening. This composition was very well played, with a style and beauty quite above the average student presentation. Her runs were splendid and very Mozartian and the cadenza was beautifully played. Adelaide Swanson assisted capably at the second piano. Four compositions in the final group were played with excellent touch, positive and with good expression particularly noted in the Chopin and Gulon numbers.

Assisting the young pianist was Constance Dey, also of North Warren, whose two groups displayed a fine soprano voice, flexible and with excellent articulation and phrasing. Aiding her at the piano was Edith Haines Kuester in very satisfactory accompaniments.

The next in the series of recitals will be Marion Kridler, junior, at 8:15 p. m. tomorrow, with Harold Knappenberg, Jr., assisting tenor.

Mrs. and Mrs. Richard Lott have returned to their home in Washington, D. C., after visiting the former's mother, Mrs. Grace Lott, Fourth avenue.

Mrs. Charles Cardamone, Mrs. Paul Laverty and son, Joseph Scalise, have left for a two-week vacation in Columbus, O., with Mrs. Mel Adolphson, sister of Mrs. Cardamone and Mrs. Laverty and until recently a resident of Warren.

It will interest many in this section to learn that Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Wood, of Victory Heights near Franklin, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary at their home Sunday, June 14.

The day was spent quietly with near relatives, a large party at the home of a daughter having been cancelled because Mr. Wood's health would not permit his leaving home.

Mr. Wood was born 75 years ago on June 15 at Irvine, the son of Stephen Wood, who was better known as "Barney," and is the last of a large family. On his 25th birthday anniversary he was united in marriage with Sadie Robbins of Tidioute, and to them were born seven girls and four boys.

Six of these still living are: Mrs. Estella Dickinson, Emporia; Mrs. Gertrude Umstead, of Fern, Pa.; Mrs. Fred Lawson, Franklin; Mrs. Ira Downing, Erie; Robert and Dale Wood, at home. Children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren present numbered 36 also Lew Robbins and son, Earl, former residents of Tidioute and only near relatives of Mrs. Wood. They also have several nieces and nephews in and near Warren.

Mr. Wood followed the lumber mills for many years as a teamster, leaving Warren county about 33 years ago with the Reed and Fisher Lumber Company.

IS PARTY GUEST
RUTH JOHNSON, bride of the near future, was honored guest at a dinner party given at the Y. W. C. A. by Lavina Morganroth and Margaret Hughes. Table decorations were done in aqua and yellow and the honored guest received many lovely gifts from the following friends:

Mrs. O. S. Johnson, Ridgway; Evelyn Magnuson, Kane; Olga Habzda, Sheffield; Mrs. Donald Bjers, Mrs. Fred Genhardt, Mrs. Merle Sterling, Evelyn Frederickson, Kay Kuselman, Audrey Mickelson, Vera Munch, Sylvia Lucia and the hostesses.

Florence Armstrong Becomes the Bride of Henry C. Dohrmann

Florence Stewart Armstrong, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. Curtis Armstrong, Jackson avenue, became the bride of Henry C. Dohrmann, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Dohrmann, of Jersey City, N. J. in a pretty ceremony performed at 5:30 p. m. Saturday in the First Presbyterian church by Dr. Harold C. Warren.

Altar decorations were of mock orange blossoms, pink and white peonies and palms, flanked by candelabra. A beautiful recital of organ music and traditional marches were played by Miss Gladys Taylor.

The bridal gown of puritan simplicity was fashioned of ivory satin with square neckline, long sleeves and train and her veil fell from a scalloped puritan cap. Her colonial bouquet was of white roses. Attending her as maid of honor was Miss Martha Branch, wearing a similar frock and cap and carrying a colonial bouquet of red roses.

Andrew Beyfuss, of Jersey City, was Mr. Dohrmann's best man and ushers were Albert Kroll, of New York City, and William Moore, of Warren.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Y.W.C.A. for relatives and friends, including the senior Dohrmans and Mr. Beyfuss, Jersey City; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kroll, New York; Mr. and Mrs. Percy Lanning, Greenville.

The couple expect to be at home at 101 Sherman Place, Jersey City, following a western wedding trip. Mrs. Dohrmann, graduate of Warren High School and of Wilson College, was Girl Reserve secretary at the local Y.W.C.A. for four years and a member of the Beatty school faculty in the past term. Her husband, graduate of Englewood, N. J. High School and with a bachelor of science degree in engineering from the Newark College of Engineering, is a member of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers and is at present chief engineer for the Buell Engineering Company in New York.

Since announcement of her wedding day was made by Miss Martha Branch, the bride-elect has been honored with a shower by her bridge club; parties by Lois Bogart; Evelyn Leonhart and Mrs. William Moore; Y.W.C.A. board of directors; seventh grade pupils at Beatty school, and women teachers from the same building.

Refrigerator care should include defrosting whenever ice around freezing unit is 1/4-inch thick, and cleaning up of foods spilled inside the cabinet, to prevent damage to porcelain enamel surface.

A special oil used in processing rubber soles enables them to stand up three times better than before.

SOMETIMES in the next week or so find time to go up to the attic and bring down that tricycle or scooter Johnny has outgrown. The rubber tires, sold to the Rubber Salvage Campaign, will help to "Keep 'Em Rolling" and "Keep 'Em Flying" in the scrap with the Jap.

UNCLE EF

If you make all the cows, pigs, dogs and cats comfortable-like in their own quarters, it's hardly necessary to also bring them into the house. So, if, as they're sayin', we're fightin' now to make every place in the world a place of freedom and right, with plenty to eat, maybe we should add that this is the best we can do, so please don't ask to come to America any more, lookin' for somethin' better.

A DIME YOU'LL NEVER MISS MAY SAVE A SOLDIER'S LIFE!

It's a fact that a single 10-cent piece can be the means of saving a soldier's life—because the five cartridges it buys can make the difference between victory and defeat for one of our boys. Think then what more money will do, if put regularly into U. S. War Savings Stamps! Order them delivered to your home, week after week, by your newspaper carrier boy. This coupon, filled in, will be all the authorization he needs. Hand it to him next time he stops!

I would like to have ..... 10-cent War Savings Stamps delivered to my home each week until further notice.

Presbyterian Picnic Held On Saturday

Members of the Sunday school of the First Presbyterian church held an enjoyable picnic Saturday afternoon and evening at Island Park in Youngsville. Clear skies and a warm sun added greatly to the enjoyment of the affair, which, while not as largely attended as in some years, was thoroughly enjoyed by all who turned out.

An intensive and well participated program of sports occupied most of the afternoon. A basket picnic was served at 6:15; ice cream, coffee and cream being furnished by a committee of the Married Couples group with John Swick as chairman.

Following the picnic supper a short vesper service was held. Ralph Sires was in charge. A talk was given by Harold Banghart and Tel Epley, formerly of Warren and now living in Erie, led the song service.

Among the prize winners in the afternoon, in which contests were provided for boys and girls of all ages, were: Andrew McComas, Anne Bannon, Sally Swick, Clare Olson, Leonard Anderson, Elizabeth Dunham, Donald Unangst, Mary Jane Stoddard, Dorothy McJunkin, Mary Anne Handest, Elizabeth Bathurst, Mary Fowler and Richard Swick.

A girls' team, headed by Ruth Davis, won the broad jump race. Ralph Sires was in charge. A talk was given by Harold Banghart and Tel Epley, formerly of Warren and now living in Erie, led the song service.

Many Suggestions for Local Test Blackout Are Announced

Now that Warren county is slated for its first blackout test on the night of June 25, a night in which all non-essential lights are to be extinguished from dusk to dawn, householders are taking stock of what they should do to help make the test effective.

Possibly for the first time, it is now brought home to many patriotic citizens, that they are not fully prepared, which is as expected. That's why the test is being made—so everyone will have an opportunity to learn the problems of getting along without a light showing outside the home, and at the same time still be able to live normally on the inside.

The Warren County Defense Council doesn't recommend a lot of expensive preparations. Much can be done at no cost at all simply by use of the ingenuity of the average householder.

A few common sense suggestions are given here, to assure the safety of a family unit at the same time assuring complete conformance with the blackout regulations.

First of all, a householder should, on the first possible night, go over his home and consider the minimum number of lights he will need to use at any time during a night. Turn them on, pull the shades, and then go out doors to see what lights are showing.

By using some means to obscure the lights one by one from the outside view, a home "blackout" can be made completely effective. It may be necessary to put further shields, such as blankets or some other material over certain windows where the shades are too thin to keep the light from going through. Usually, in such instances, if direct rays of light can be kept from striking the shades, the present ones will serve.

Then the matter of getting out doors without light, comes for some maneuvering. It may be found necessary to use only certain outside doors where light shielding is practical, and to abandon use of others during blackouts.

Some attention should be paid to ventilation, too, so that residents can escape the sultry conditions of summer. Sleeping rooms with no lights on within, may still have open windows and a minimum of discomfort.

One quite imperative thing for the safety and convenience of a household is one or two flashlights. These should have a red piece of cloth or colored paper, over the lamp, so that a minimum of visibility outside the immediate radius of the beam will show.

Furniture, such as tables, chairs, lamps, etc., should be so placed in each room, that persons moving in partial darkness will not fall over them. It's a good idea to give more consideration to their safe

Fifteen churches were represented by the group.

For Added Protection

Some think the old style "tin derby" had a jaunty flare, but the new war helmet has something more important—extra protection. When trouble comes at you from all directions, that's what counts. Even back here at home, no one can predict what kind of trouble is in store for him, or from what direction it may come. You can protect yourself with a financial tin hat: a bank account. A fine program is arranged to begin at 10:30 o'clock and all attending are asked to bring a well filled basket for noon lunch, also their own sugar, cups and silverware. The hostess school will provide coffee, cream, lemonade and plates.

Hundreds of motorists used up gas hunting in vain for a place to buy it.

Two tank trucks appeared in a street in early afternoon and scores of cars promptly fell in line behind them. But the trucks delivered to a station where nearly 100 motorists already were waiting to make purchases.

The unit value on the ration cards was doubled by the government in order to take care of a two-week extension of the rationing period, originally scheduled to end July 1. The new rationing period will begin July 15.
